Prot. N. 2022 RMC-12

DECREE

IN THE NAME OF GOD. AMEN.

Changing demographics have affected the size and wealth of the Archdiocese of Chicago and the vitality of her parishes. This is particularly true in the City of Chicago itself, where the total population fell by nearly 21% since 1970, from 3,366,957 to an estimated 2,693,976 in 2020. During the last decade, the total population of the Archdiocese of Chicago (Cook and Lake Counties in Illinois) declined by less than 2%, from 5,903,190 in 2010 to an estimated 5,821,933 in 2020. However, over the same ten-year period, the Catholic population of the Archdiocese of Chicago declined by nearly 7% (159,000), from 2,338,000 to 2,179,000.

A good number of our parishes were founded more than 100 years ago, in the 19th Century or the first half of the 20th Century. Many were established for national, linguistic, or ethnic groups that no longer reside in the archdiocese or in the neighborhoods where they once flourished. Today, many are unable or struggling to support themselves. Consequently, from Fiscal Year 2012 through Fiscal Year 2021, the Archdiocese of Chicago provided $187,818,176.00 in support to parishes and Catholic schools: $49,452,924.00 to 119 parishes and $138,365,252.00 to 99 Catholic schools. This includes $10,708,494.00 during Fiscal Year 2021 alone: $3,120,340.00 to parishes and $7,588,154.00 to Catholic schools, mostly parochial schools. Completely due to the generosity of the faithful people of the archdiocese and other gracious donors, these subsidies cannot continue at this high level. Our mission is to convert our parishes, helping them to become more vital, that is, active centers of Christian discipleship, evangelical mission, scholarship, and charitable outreach. For this mission, the parishes need a growing and stable membership and the financial means to support themselves.

More than six years ago, inspired by the experience of St. Francis of Assisi before the cross of the ruined church of San Damiano and the Holy Father's dream of "a missionary option ... capable of transforming everything" (Pope Francis, Apostolic Exhortation Evangelii Gaudium, n. 27, November 24, 2013), and with wide and continuing consultation among the clergy and lay faithful of the Archdiocese of Chicago, particularly in the Presbyteral Council, we embarked on the inauguration of Renew My Church (RMC). This is our multi-year process aimed at converting our parishes for mission. It is my intention that every parish join with some of its neighbors (groupings) to plan the future. Careful planning will create a menu of possibilities. We are identifying parishes to be reconfigured through pastoral coordination with neighboring parishes, divisions, unions, and other structural and governance changes.

This decree concerns three adjacent parishes located within approximately 15 square miles on the far Southside of the City of Chicago: SS. Peter and Paul Parish (established as a personal parish for Lithuanian faithful 1913), 12433 South Halsted Street, Chicago, Illinois 60628-7035; Holy Name of Mary Parish (established 1940), 11159 South Loomis Street, Chicago, Illinois 60643-3653; and St. John de La Salle Parish (established 1948), 10205 South King Drive, Chicago, Illinois 60628-2109. The churches of the three parishes are approximately two and one half to four and one-half miles apart, a drive of between six and fourteen minutes.

In Fiscal Year 2020 the pre-COVID-19 average Sunday Mass attendance at SS. Peter and Paul Parish was 205, an 55% decline from the 454 attending in Fiscal Year 2000. The same year, the average Sunday attendance at Holy Name of Mary Parish was 139, a 65% decline from the 401 attending in Fiscal Year 2000, while the average Sunday attendance at St. John de La Salle Parish was 117, a 60% decline from the 295 in Fiscal year 2000. Those living within the parish boundaries and attending the three parishes are predominantly from the African American community. Ministry to Lithuanian faithful at SS. Peter and Paul ended some time ago.

In Fiscal Year 2021, SS. Peter and Paul Parish had an operating deficit of $68,578.00. In Fiscal Year 2020 there was an operating deficit of $106,491.00, and in Fiscal Year 2019 the operating deficit was $98,083.00. In October 2021 the parish had savings of $6,407.00 on deposit, $451,471.00 in church debt, and an assessment of capital needs totaling $909,250.00 in June 2021.

Holy Name of Mary Parish had an operating deficit of $74,223.00 in Fiscal Year 2021, $24,676.00 in Fiscal Year 2020, and $69,568.00 in Fiscal Year 2019. The parish had savings of $39,148.00 on deposit in October 2021, $141,064.00 in church debt, and estimated capital needs of 1,088,875.00 in June 2021.

St. John de La Salle Parish had an operating deficit of $89,940.00 in Fiscal Year 2021, $139,078.00 in Fiscal year 2020, and $98,083.00 in Fiscal Year 2019. The parish had savings of $93,849.00 on deposit in October 2021, $978,175.00 in church debt, and estimated capital needs of $1,122,700.00 in June 3021.

During Fiscal Year 2019, liturgical life outside Sunday Mass at SS. Peter and Paul Parish included three funerals, no marriages, and no Baptisms. In the same period there were nine funerals, no marriages, and four Baptisms at Holy Name of Mary Parish. At St. John de La Salle Parish there were three funerals, no marriages, and no Baptisms. The combined totals are 15 funerals, no marriages, and four Baptisms, well below the average for a single parish.

Following consultations last year with lay and clergy members of the parishes, including input from parishioners at large, a report was submitted to the Archdiocesan Standards and Recommendations Commission, a group of lay and clergy representatives from across the Archdiocese of Chicago. Recently, the Renew My Church Executive Committee submitted the Commission's recommendation to the pastoral leadership of the archdiocese. Due to the decline in the number of faithful at both parishes, continuing decline in the number of priests to serve as pastors, continuing operating deficits and significant capital needs at both parishes, the Church in this area of the City of Chicago will struggle financially and administratively to sustain three parishes. If the care of souls, evangelization, and discipleship are to be the focus of future mission, the consolidation and conservation of resources under the leadership of a single pastor and pastoral team is required.

THEREFORE, know that I, Cardinal Blase J. Cupich, Archbishop of Chicago, according to the norms of canon 50, canon 121, canon 127 §§1, 2, 2°, & 3, and canon 515 §2 of the Code of Canon Law, have before me a proposal that the above-mentioned SS. Peter and Paul Parish, Holy Name of Mary Parish, and St. John de La Salle Parish, all on the Southside of the City of Chicago, be extinguished as separate juridic persons in the Church and united to form one new juridic person, a territorial parish named, ad interim, Holy Name of Mary, SS. Peter and Paul, and St. John de La Salle Parish, located within the combined territories of Holy Name of Mary Parish and St. John de La Salle Parish and with the addition of the territory of the neighboring St. Anthony Parish west of Wallace Avenue. Holy Name of Mary Church is to be designated the parish church. Know also, I convened the Presbyteral Council of the Archdiocese of Chicago electronically via the internet on January 17, 2022. Then, after hearing the Presbyteral Council and receiving its vote of 32 for and one against the proposal, I accepted the Presbyteral Council's advice and now, invoking the Holy Spirit,

I decree the following:

Peter and Paul Parish, Holy Name of Mary parish, and St. John de La Salle Parish, all on the Southside of the City of Chicago shall be extinguished as separate juridic persons in the Church and united to form one new juridic person, a territorial parish within the combined territories of Holy Name of Mary Parish and St. John de La Salle Parish, and the territory of St. Anthony Parish west of Wallace Avenue. The new parish is to be called, ad interim, Holy Name of Mary, SS. Peter and Paul, and St. John de La Salle Parish;
2. The ministries of the three extinguished parishes will become those of the new Holy Name of Mary, SS. Peter and Paul, and St. John de La Salle Parish;

Peter and Paul, and St. John de La Salle Parish will be the combined territories of the extinguished Holy Name of Mary Parish and St. John de La Salle Parish and the portion of the territory of St. Anthony Parish west of Wallace Avenue, as depicted and described on the map and in the document attached to this decree;
5. Subject to the intention of founders and donors, and with due regard for any acquired rights, the goods and patrimonial rights of the three extinguished parishes, together with any obligations with which they may be burdened, will be those of the new Holy Name of Mary, SS. Peter and Paul, and St. John de La Salle Parish (canon 121);
